What do I need to apply for a concealed pistol license?

- Bring a photo ID such as a valid state driver license or ID card.
- Bring your permanent resident card if you are a permanent resident alien.
- If you have an alien firearms license, bring your original passport and United States issued alien number or admission number.
- Bring your original certificate of rehabilitation or firearms restoration orders, if applicable.

How much does it cost for a concealed pistol license?

- Original license – $36
- Renewal license – $32
- Late renewal license – $42
- Replacement license – $10

Plus background check fees. All fees are non-refundable.

Do I need to get a fingerprint or background check?

- Yes. The law enforcement agency will take your fingerprints and conduct a background check before they issue an original CPL.
- The background check process will usually be completed within 30 days from the date you apply.
- If you do not have a valid Washington driver license or Washington state identification card or have not been a resident of Washington state for the prior 90 consecutive days, then the process may take up to 60 days.

Are there any other requirements?

Yes. Your application can be denied if:

- You have a concealed pistol license in a revoked status
- You are under 21 years of age
- You are subject to a court order or injunction concerning the possession of firearms
- You are free on bond or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a felony offense
- You have an outstanding warrant for your arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor
- You have been ordered to forfeit a firearm within one year before filing a concealed pistol license application

Who do I contact if I have any questions?

- Contact your local law enforcement agency or county sheriff's office.

CAUTION: Although state and local laws do not differ, federal law and state law on the possession of firearms differ. If you are prohibited by federal law from possessing a firearm, you may be prosecuted in federal court. A state license is not a defense to federal prosecution.

AGENCY PRIVACY REQUIREMENTS FOR NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANTS

Authorized governmental and non-governmental agencies/officials that conduct a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check on an applicant for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as employment or a license, immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption) are obligated to ensure the applicant is provided certain notices and that the results of the check are handled in a manner that protects the applicant's privacy. All notices must be provided in writing.¹ These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 552a, and Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 50.12, among other authorities.

- Officials must ensure that each applicant receives an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when the applicant submits his/her fingerprints and associated personal information.²
- Officials must advise all applicants in writing that procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of an FBI criminal history record are set forth at 28 CFR 16.34. Information regarding this process may be found at <https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks> and <https://www.edo.cjis.gov>.
- Officials must provide the applicant the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the FBI criminal history record.
- Officials should not deny the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record until the applicant has been afforded a reasonable time to correct or complete the record or has declined to do so.
- Officials must use the FBI criminal history record for authorized purposes only and cannot retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³

The FBI has no objection to officials providing a copy of the applicant's FBI criminal history record to the applicant for review and possible challenge when the record was obtained based on positive fingerprint identification. If agency policy permits, this courtesy will save the applicant the time and additional FBI fee to obtain his/her record directly from the FBI by following the procedures found at 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34. It will also allow the officials to make a more timely determination of the applicant's suitability.

Each agency should establish and document the process/procedures it utilizes for how/when it gives the applicant the FBI Privacy Act Statement, the 28 CFR 50.12 notice, and the opportunity to correct his/her record. Such documentation will assist State and/or FBI auditors during periodic compliance reviews on use of FBI criminal history records for noncriminal justice purposes.
