

Chapter 5.04

BUSINESS AND OCCUPATION LICENSES

5.04.100 License – Exceptions.

The following, including those activities that are similar in nature and effect to those listed, in the judgement of the Community Development Director, shall be exempt from the requirement to apply for and obtain a business license:

- A. For any mere delivery in the City of any property purchased or acquired in good faith at a person's regular place of business outside the City where no intent is shown to exist to evade the provisions of this chapter;
- B. In the case of salespeople soliciting orders from manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers, distributors or retailers, where no act of business is done in the City;
- C. Casual or isolated sales made by persons who are not otherwise engaged in the business of selling the type of property involved. Casual sales shall include garage sales, lawn sales, attic sales, rummage sales, flea market sales, or any other similar casual sale of tangible personal property conducted on an infrequent basis, not to exceed three times per each calendar year and three days per event;
- D. Minors engaged in babysitting, lemonade stands, the delivery of newspapers or other similar pursuits;
